Welcome to Northants & Rutland Open Studios

The Central Exhibition

Sponsored by
Lamport Hall Preservation Trust &
The George Cadbury Trust

"Lamport Hall's connection with art dates back to 1676, when Sir Thomas Isham, 3rd Baronet, began building a remarkable collection during his Grand Tour. Nearly 350 years later, that spirit of creativity and discovery continues."

We are delighted to welcome Northants & Rutland Open Studios back to the Stableyard for 2026, bringing together artists, makers and visitors from across the region. The festival is a wonderful celebration of the creativity, imagination and artistic talent that continues to thrive across Northamptonshire and Rutland."

Mark Herrod, Director Lamport Hall

Artist Prizes

The organisers of Northants & Rutland Open Studios are very lucky to be supported by local businesses and partners who see the value in the Arts within both counties. They like to show their support by offering prizes for artists taking part in the Festival, awarded to acknowledge an appreciation of an individual's achievements and development.
